April 2026

Grand Knights Corner:

As we approach the end of Lent and look forward to the miracle of the Resurrection of our Lord, I pray that you and your families have benefited from this season of preparation.

We have so much to be thankful for in our Council, and most notably, I am deeply grateful for all of your hard work and cheerful service throughout a very busy March. Not only did we host a record-setting Bean Supper, with more than 100 people enjoying a meal together, but we followed it up a week later with the St. Patrick's Dinner, which many of you assisted with. Once again, our St. Patrick's Dinner was a sellout, with scarcely any food left over, and everything went so well due to your efforts—thank you!

Looking ahead to April, we of course have Holy Week, culminating in Easter Sunday. Fourth Degree Honor Guard members have been asked to participate in the 8:30 AM Easter Mass at Holy Family. If you are a new Fourth Degree Knight and would like to see the Honor Guard in action, I encourage you to attend that Mass.

Due to the Easter weekend schedule conflict, we have moved our April Bean Supper back one week to April 11 at 5 PM at Holy Trinity. As always, please contact me if you can volunteer and/or donate a casserole or dessert. As attendance continues to grow, we will need additional support.

Our Monthly Rosary is scheduled for 6 PM on April 1 at Holy Family, and I have confirmed that it remains on the calendar despite falling during Holy Week.

Our Council Meeting is scheduled for Monday, April 6 at 6:30 PM. We will be voting on which storage shed to select. We have received approval to locate the shed in the lower parking lot, on the pavement next to the handicap parking spaces near the BBQ pit, which is great news.

I wish you all the best for a blessed Holy Week and Easter.

Yours in Christ,
Robert Michaud — Grand Knight
